

Final Report

Gary Mar Mission to Washington, D.C.
November 26-28, 2007

Overview:

Immediately prior to being officially named Alberta's Representative in Washington, D.C., Gary Mar travelled to the United States capital to represent the Alberta government at a Canadian Embassy event.

The mission was successful in meeting its objectives as outlined below.

Mission Objectives:

Represent the Government of Alberta at a Canadian Embassy dinner.
Establish relations with Canadian Embassy officials.

Results:

At the invitation of the Canadian Embassy, Mar represented the Government of Alberta at an Embassy dinner honouring former Premier Ralph Klein for his contributions to Canada-U.S. relations, and in recognition of his Fellowship at the Woodrow Wilson Center's Canada Institute.

While in Washington, D.C., Mar had the opportunity to meet with officials at the Alberta Office in Washington and the Canadian Embassy to discuss his upcoming posting as Alberta's Representative. Mar also met with senior officials from a number of Washington-based energy, business and media organizations.

Delegation:
